1. Definitions.

1.1. “Services” shall mean any services performed by Cabedge as specified in the Services Agreement signed by the Parties.

1.2. “Work Product” shall mean all tangible and intangible results and items arising out of the Services delivered to Customer by Cabedge under these Terms and Conditions, together with all derivative works and all related intellectual property rights.

2. Services.

2.1. Performance.

Cabedge shall use commercially reasonable efforts to perform the Services in accordance with the Statement of Work which is part and parcel of the Services Agreement executed by both parties (each a “Statement of Work”). The parties may execute additional or future Statements of Work which may become part and parcel of the original Services Agreement if agreed to by the parties. Cabedge shall perform the Services as described in the Statement of Work. Customer acknowledges that Cabedge's performance is dependent in part upon Customer's reasonable assistance and performance of its prerequisite obligations set forth in the Statement of Work. Accordingly, any dates or time periods relevant to Cabedge's performance will be equitably extended automatically to account for any delays due to failure of Customer to complete any of its prerequisite obligations or to provide such information or assistance, or due to changes requested by Customer.

2.2. Changes.

Changes to any Statement of Work or the Services to be performed thereunder shall become effective only when the parties execute a written change order. Such executed written change order shall be deemed to become incorporated into the original Service Agreement between the parties. The Customer agrees that, for the sake of convenience, Cabedge has the right to obtain electronic mail consent to any change orders. The Customer’s affirmative response to such electronic mail shall constitute written consent to the requested change order.

2.3. Additional Statements of Work.

If Customer desires to engage Cabedge for additional services that are not included in the initial Statement of Work, the parties shall in good faith negotiate additional Statements of Work, subject to the availability of Cabedge personnel and resources. Upon execution by both parties, each additional Statement of Work shall be deemed a part of the original Services Agreement. Cabedge shall only be obligated to provide Services that are set forth in an executed Statement of Work. Accommodations may be made by Cabedge to assist the Customer with certain projects or tasks, however these are only to be considered accommodations for convenience purposes and do not create an obligation to perform any such services unless the Services are set forth in an executed Statement of Work.

Customer agrees that such increases are acceptable.

3.2. Expenses.

Customer shall reimburse Cabedge for travel and out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred in performing the Services as provided in this Section. Customer's failure to dispute an invoice or any part of an invoice in writing within 15 days of receipt of the invoice will be conclusive proof that the invoice is accepted. Customer agrees that they waive their rights, if any future legal dispute should arise, to challenge invoices which were not disputed in accordance with the process detailed herein. Any late payment shall be subject to any costs of collection (including reasonable legal fees) and shall bear interest at the rate of 1.5% per month until paid. Cabedge may also provide periodic Status Reports (electronically and/or on paper) to Customer summarizing work status, hours worked, and/or general information on the status of the work being performed.
